- Letter was sent from SportBC to Minister of Sport, Coralee Oaks. Meeting was held on Oct 24th. Additional meeting was held with David Galbraith and Margret Ross on Oct 29th.

Greg White: Transition with ViaSport stated in 2013 minutes

5. Chair's Remarks

Chair, Denise Coutts restated that there was no transition of programs and services or assets. She also confirmed that she had a good relationship with the CEO and worked well with him to "right the sinking ship". The role of chair is currently not sustainable and there is currently a working board of 6 members. Due to the small numbers, it was sometimes hard to adhere to the by-laws. The board set up the committee structure and also tried to envision what a policy board would look like. Denise's goal for the next two years is to create a sustainable position. She thanked everyone for their support, hoped to reduce number of board meetings from 10 to 4 and also hoped that the committee structure will be in operation soon. Human Resources did a successful CEO report.

6. CEO's Remarks

CEO, Rob Newman, introduced Sport BC and KidSport staff. Sport BC is 22 months away from paying off debt and has a solid financial footing. After the debt is paid off, Sport BC will be able to provide more financial support. Thanked the members and board for their support, for example AOY. Sport BC is a trailblazer, with the creation of NSTF, KidSport and the insurance companies. PSO's encouraged to try SBC insurance.

Greg White, BC Athletics, confirmed a 22 months debt. He also confirmed that it is possible to be on Payroll services but not a member. Rob Newman says that they will be reviewing payroll services in the next 90 days and hoping to increase service levels. They will also be asking for recommendations to improve the process.

7. Standing Committee Reports

Finance and Audit Committee Report

Carey Dillen

Carey Dillen provided an overview of the ongoing work of the Finance and Audit committee. The following items were addressed:

Consolidated Financial Statements: The statements include Sport BC, SBC Insurance, KidSport BC and All Sport Insurance (50%).

2014 Audit: For the past two year there has been no government funding operationally but we are still received $433 000 for KidSport. We achieved a positive bottom line and working capital has gotten better. We are financially healthy and a lot of our revenue comes from the insurance premiums. Sport BC must pay $250,000 every year for 4 years to pay the BCIT debt down and at the end of 2016, when the debt is paid off, Sport BC will have $250 000/ per year to spend on membership. KPMG has removed the future operations note in the financial statement because they have confidence in the future of Sport BC.

2015 Budget: Steady Budget! Budget for 2015 is the same as the budget for 2014.

Governance Committee Report

Brock Turner

Brock Turner summarized the activities of the committee. There were two meetings this year and we are just seeing the effects of the changes in the bylaws. During the year, there was concern about potential major turnovers on the board on a more regular basis which may have caused less stability. The major concern is around succession planning. It is something that the board will consider over the next two years. There are also recommendations about adding board members. There are currently 7 memberships pending approval.

Brian McCaldar, BC Athletics asked about the timeline regarding the BC Not-For-Profit Act. The deadline for compliance is October. He wanted to know when PSOs have to review their bylaws.

Michael Bradley, BC Soccer, had information regarding the act. There will be registration at the next legislative session. Then, there should be dramatic changes to membership. Someone also asked about the timeline of strategic planning. This was addressed later in the meeting by Denise Coutts.

Greg White, BC Athletics, requested to have board meeting minutes distributed to PSOs.

Denise Coutts responds to Brian McC Calder. She says it is something that the board will address at the next PSO meeting and will be available online. Regarding Greg White's request, Denise says that there were 10 board meetings this year and they are hoping to move to four next year with several PSO meetings and social events. Denise has already done some research on the privacy information act and there are some pros and cons about meeting minutes being public. This is something that the board will take into consideration and will set parameters around it.

Greg White, BC Athletics, says that they strongly prefer to have meeting minutes available.

Performance Review Committee

Heather Turner/Denise Coutts

Denise Coutts reported on behalf of Heather Turner. Heather had conducted a 360 degree review of the CEO. There were 11 participants who took part in the review, including board, staff and PSO representatives. The CEO also conducted a self-evaluation and his contract was extended to 2016.

As well, there were some operational things to take care of before strategic planning could happen. We have extended our lease with BCIT. Operationally, we know what we need to do and are now able to think strategically, including some major changes to the by-laws, membership criteria, creating policy and put a staff model in place.

Athlete of the Year Award

Denise Coutts

Denise Coutts reported on the Athlete of the Year Award event (AOY). Rob Newman was responsible for raising $70 000 in sponsorship and was successful. There was also an event manager, Shelly Johnson. The AOY committee was a volunteer committee. The AOY committee also worked with Sports with balls to provide a complimentary ticket to each president award winner. There will be some changes to the nomination process in order to make it more efficient and increase nominations. The event was on budget. The minister attended the AOY, with the help of David Galbraith. There were 32 sports and 16 communities represented in the finalists. For next year, there is potentially a committee member who will chair the AOY committee for 2015. The Fairmont is tentatively booked on March 5th or 12th (Thursday) for AOY 2015. Denise Coutts also made a commitment to co-chair AOY 2016 for the 50th anniversary.

Simon Litherland, Rowing BC, made a comment to include a City of Vancouver table, as there was a City of Burnaby table.

David Soul, BC WaterPolo, asked about if ViaSport was part of the AOY. We received $20 000 sponsorship from ViaSport. Caley Denton was seated at the head table and there were 2 tables of ViaSport staff. There has not been communication with ViaSport since the AOY and hopefully things will change soon. Denise still believes that there is still a role for Sport BC to play in the sport sector.

Communications Report

The communications report was given by Debbie Pyne. After review of the previous year, they realized there were not a lot of member updates going out to the membership so the goal was to have one member update every month. They did double the number of member updates from the previous year but fell short of that goal. The focus needs to be on what should be communicated to the PSOs. They also want to focus on what each PSO is doing and communicate it with other PSOs. Next year, there should be one member update per month and other communications.

Rob Newman also assisted Debbie Pyne in applying for federal student grant in order to increase the staff number. There are now 2 interns working for Sport BC who will be doing a lot of the base work, such as, updating the directory.

There are also two PSO meetings and there has been a format change. Instead of focusing on just one issue/topic, they are now bringing in speakers in order to allow PSOs to network. This format will continue in upcoming PSO meetings. There needs to be a communications committee in order to reach out to communications coordinators and will be looking at communication coordinators of various PSOs to form this committee. It is imperative to have strong communication.

Basketball BC is the PSO champion for incorporating Kidsport into their events (camps, competitions, etc). There are 41 community chapters in BC which are run completely by volunteers. KidSport’s relationship with the government has 3 criteria they need to fulfill: get more kids in the game, ensure that the government’s $400 000 is leveraged and develop new community chapters. There are three new chapters in development and hopefully by 2016, KidSport will meet the goal of 45 community chapters.

Sue Griffin, Tennis BC, inquired about the ratio of boys and girls helped by KidSport. Out of the kids helped by KidSport, 37% are girls and 63% are boys.

KidSport aims to keep their administrative costs at 20% of their fundraising revenue.

10. New Business

After a successful year, it is now time for Sport BC to determine its strategic direction moving forward. The process to develop a strategic plan would be developed based on discussions with a preplanning committee and a review of the following documents: Sport BC mission statements, constitution and bylaws, and past strategic plans.

The vision for the strategic planning process will help identify who will contribute to the process, to have a process that will result in the mission, values, visions reviewed and approved by the members, that encourages Sport BC members to share their opinions, provides staff with the opportunity to have a voice, helps identify a strategic plan, helps identify an interest in what Sport BC can/cannot do for its members, strengthen relationship and a process that builds a foundation of relevance that can be leveraged over time.

Currently no budget allocated to the strategic planning and governance review process; but the board will assign the appropriate funding and resources to complete this process. Key elements in this process are communication and transparency.

Would like input from members on how to move forward.

The date for next AGM is May 30th, 2015.
